July 16, 2020

The Market Conduct Division of the Connecticut Insurance Department examined by targeted review the market conduct practices of American General Life Insurance Company using a sample period of January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018. The targeted review was limited to Connecticut Annuity Insurance business.

American General Life Insurance Company has its home office in the State of Texas. By authority granted under §38a-15 of the Connecticut General Statutes, this targeted review was conducted by Market Conduct examiners of the State of Connecticut Insurance Department (the Department) at the Department offices in Hartford, Connecticut.

The purpose of the examination survey was to evaluate the Company's annuity replacement activity in the State of Connecticut. The examiners reviewed the Company's response, which included information requested for the examination period.

The Department's findings are as follows:

- The Company failed to provide adequate replacement and suitability documentation regarding recommendations recording the reasonable basis specific to product exchanges in compliance with Connecticut regulations.

It is recommended that the Company review its suitability practices to ensure that the annuity exchange documentation, at the time of sale, includes the specific benefit improvements and enhancements provided in the new contract over the old contract but equally important thoroughly details any lost benefits from the old replaced contract(s).
